TARGET AGE GROUP - Lower and middle secondary

LESSON DURATION - 15 - 45 mins

LESSON OVERVIEW

These lesson plans explore the topic of cyberbullying, its impact and avenues for seeking help. The focus of the activities is to explore the impact of cyberbullying on yourself, others, your family and the school community. The activities are based on the Rewrite Your Story (RYS) online resources. RYS is designed to empower young people to consider, discuss and take action about cyberbullying and other negative online behaviour.

Through a series of eight high-quality short films, an interactive quiz and discussion-starter in-school activities, RYS explores real life cyberbullying experiences to help other young people find a pathway to rewrite their stories too.

This lesson plan explores Kara's Story.

BACKGROUND

Rewrite Your Story is a youth-focussed initiative which explores cyberbullying and other online issues young people face. The Office's latest research shows 19 per cent of teenagers (aged 13-17) experienced cyberbullying in the 12 months to June 2016. However, levels of reporting do not reflect this figure. This begs the question, why aren't young people exhibiting help seeking behaviour with adults in this space?

Rewrite Your Story features real-life cyberbullying stories, alongside advice and support about how to handle it from both a youth and professional focus. Important information for teachers is housed on the REWRITE YOUR STORY site that aims to assist in starting a conversation about online issues and working out strategies on how to resolve, recover and build resilience from risks such as cyberbullying.

The program also provides essential information about how and when to report serious cyberbullying to the Office. The Office's CYBERBULLYING COMPLAINTS SCHEME allows young people, parents and an authorised adult (such as a teacher) to report serious cyberbullying material and to get that material removed.

Rewrite Your Story is an educational program designed to empower young people to be courageous in the face of cyberbullying, guide them when they need, and help them to support their friends.

Activity 1

1. Am I ready? Find out if you've got all the info you need to report cyberbullying.	3	Young people's experience of serious cyberbullying using a real life example, and the avenues to get help.	20-45 min	Internet access to view the CYBERBULLYING INTERACTIVE QUIZ Internet access to view the 'KARA' Rewrite Your Story video.

INSTRUCTIONS

The focus of this activity is to assist in starting a conversation about online issues and working out strategies on how to resolve, recover and build resilience from risks such as cyberbullying.

1. Watch the Kara video

General question you may like to consider to get your class thinking about the issues:

- What do you think cyberbullying actually is? If a group is targeting you with online abuse, what can you do?

2. Allocate Kara and Joel's personal stories to students as case studies.

- ### 3. Get each student to log into the RYS site (www.esafety.gov.au/rys) and take the ONLINE QUIZ. Click on It's a School Activity and answer according to their chosen character.

SUGGESTED QUESTIONS POST ACTIVITY

- What type of cyberbullying behaviour do you think Kara has experienced?
- Kara has a hate page set up specifically designed to bully and humiliate her, including 'pictures of me that make me look as stupid as they can make me look'. What do you think she should do?
- Do you think Kara did the right thing by confronting Selena and her friends after the first fake page was set up? If not, why and what do you think she should have done instead?
- What are the avenues of help that Kara could use?
- Joel resigned after getting 'flack from the group' and started his own, making Kara the first member. This was really supportive but Kara just wanted them to take that stuff down. What else do you think he could have done to help Kara?
- Discuss the impact of cyberbullying for each character and brainstorm how Kara and Joel can rewrite their story.

Answers to the suggested questions are below. Check out the RYS website for lots of useful tips and advice.

INSTRUCTIONS

The focus of this activity is on the impact of cyberbullying on yourself, others, your family and the school community. The length of the activity is dependent on the number of questions asked to the group. You may also like to split the class into small groups with each group being given a different character perspective to explore.

1. Watch the Kara video.

General questions you may like to consider. Write this statement on the board:

“Everyone has the right to stand up for themselves if they’re being cyberbullied”.

Q: If confronting the cyberbullies doesn’t work and actually does the opposite, inflaming the situation, what else can a person do if they’re attacked online?

2. Suggested character perspective questions and answers:

Kara

Q: If a group is targeting you with online abuse, what can you do?

A: Friends, adults and the Office of the eSafety Commissioner can all help.

1. Friends:

The role of both the active and silent bystander can be explored. There’s a lot friends can do to support someone being cyberbullied.

The active bystander:

Talk through some of the strategies outlined in SUPPORT and EMPOWER.

A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED examines what you say to someone if they’re being cyberbullied.

10 GOOD RESPONSES IF YOUR FRIEND IS BEING CYBERBULLIED examines how you can support a friend while still protecting yourself.

Activity 2 - continued

The silent bystander and how to become an active bystander:

IT'S NOT ALWAYS EASY outlines how sometimes doing the right thing is really hard. It takes courage to do something different and try to swim against the tide. What will you decide to do?

2. Adults and the Office of the eSafety Commissioner:

Talk through some of the strategies outlined in GET HELP. This outlines the different roles adults can play in helping young people. Strategies include the following:

- have a conversation with adults including parents, teachers and counsellors
- make a complaint about the cyberbullying. This is a great opportunity to raise awareness for the class about the cyberbullying complaints scheme and how the Office can help to have serious cyberbullying content taken down from social media sites.

Joel:

Q: When someone close to you is being bullied online, what can you do?

Q: Joel is caught up in the cyberbullying and being attacked now because he stuck up for Kara. Joel rewrote his story by leaving the group and setting up a new one. What else could he do to help Kara rewrite her story?

A: Talk through some of the strategies outlined in SUPPORT and EMPOWER.

A FRIEND IN NEED IS A FRIEND INDEED examines what you say to someone if they're being cyberbullied.

10 GOOD RESPONSES IF YOUR FRIEND IS BEING CYBERBULLIED examines how you can support a friend while still protecting yourself.

Q: What do you say to someone who is really upset? What if Kara wasn't in your close circle of friends and you don't know her well but feel like you should help?

A: Talk through some of the strategies outlined in COURAGE.

SMALL ACTS = BIG IMPACT examines how it's sometimes the little things that can make the difference to someone who is really feeling down.

HOW CAN WE HELP outlines how to report cyberbullying to the Office and to get support even if you bullied back.

Generally:

Let's finish Kara's story:

The bullying has stopped and the content is down but Kara is staring at her Instagram post, wondering if they dare click 'like'.

---

Q: What are some ideas on how Kara can reboot and start to rewrite her story?

A: Talk through some strategies outlined on the RYS EMPOWERMENT after cyberbullying has happened.

Follow up discussion:

Finish this sentence: “If I was bullied online, instead of bullying back, I would.....”

Post the group’s answers on our RYS social media feeds.
