Good afternoon [REDACTED] –

I've attached the latest draft for discussion.

There's been minimal substantive movement on this draft since late last week.

Looking forward to discussing it this afternoon.

Hi all,

Just jumping on the back of [REDACTED] email from Friday.

Could we please have a copy of the latest proposal in advance of our meeting this afternoon, so that we are better able to provide comments on the target outcomes.

Many thanks in advance,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

Thank you for sending this through. We will review prior to the Monday meeting.

Following [REDACTED] email earlier this week- I want to confirm that you and your team received our initial feedback on the draft proposal? Please let us know if you haven't received it and I will resend our feedback through fortress. Although, I'm also conscious that you may have refined your proposal following the deep dive session on Tuesday.

[REDACTED]

Please feel free to send further information to [REDACTED] <[\[REDACTED\].esafety.gov.au](mailto:[REDACTED].esafety.gov.au)>

Cheers

Good afternoon, [REDACTED]

As mentioned earlier this week, attached is a minimal DRAFT document containing current thinking from the DTA around the proposed target outcomes for upcoming AV+DigitalID trials.

We'd appreciate input from the eSafety Commission on this material, to ensure that our collective expectations around the trials' goals are well-managed.

The DTA is booked into present updates to Minister Robert and Minister Fletcher on the Digital ID + AV Trials on Wednesday, 11 August. This is 2 days earlier than I'd previously indicated we were targeting finalisation of the material in this document, but I'm confident we should be able to reach alignment after our VC on Monday.

Looking forward to discussing with you both then.
