

Have you experienced severe online abuse?

The Online Safety Act 2021 helps eSafety remove severely harmful online content.

Some examples of severe online abuse include:

- sharing explicit images without consent
- illegal or violent content
- severe threats and harassment

If you've been affected by severe online abuse, report it at eSafety.gov.au.

Scan the QR code to learn more about Australia's online safety laws.

