

Let's talk about being SAFE online

A new book from eSafety for parents, carers and children aged 7+

Every child's online journey is different. This book helps families build trust, confidence and shared understanding through thoughtful questions and prompts that invite children to express their feelings and experiences.

Scan to read

