Dear s 22 and s 22,

I was writing to confirm to you that plans for the Brunch are firmly in place.

Yes, please let me know who else would like to attend along with Julie from eSafety.

While we are waiting for more confirmations, a few are from a range of young women including s 47F, s 47F, Hannah Ferguson (Cheek Media), a rep from Butterfly Foundation, s 47F while

If you have any suggestions on invitees (including men...) please do let me know and I will invite them!

Additionally, we want to request an interview with the Commissioner (via email perhaps) as a curtain raiser to the Brunch on our Buzz website. We think it could be a great opportunity to showcase the role eSafety has in Australia and bring some more policy focus to our audience.

Please let me know what you think,

Warmly
s 47F

Hi s 47F

That should work well. I have put a hold in the calendar.

It would be great understand who the other attendees will be and whether another person from eSafety is able to attend with Julie.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards

Hi s 22, we were thinking 10-11:30am which gives enough time for a little brunch and conversation... (we've done similar timings in India too)

But since its planning stages please let me know if we need to shift a little?

We are currently looking at a location on Margaret Street. TBC.

Dear Julie,

Hope you are well! s 47F and I are returning to Australia to follow up on some conversations we are having with NGOs, and also hold some workshops [etc].

We are also delighted that we will be able to launch "Brunch with Bumble" in Australia on this trip and as discussed, we really want you to be part of the launch here!

We can do this on June 6-9 (we thought Friday brunch on the 9th might be nice) or the week after on 13/14 June. I know you might be travelling to Canberra so we can work around that.

Links to posts 1, 2 we hope gives a flavour of what the event is about: a series of conversations prioritising the safety of women online. We have had experts, academics, practitioners and policymakers join us and it made for great conversation. One of the more thrilling aspects is to link these conversations regionally (we have done our first virtual APAC level Brunch) and Australia's forward thinking, safety-by-design approach was well appreciated by our audience in Singapore and India too.

Please let me know what other information I can provide. Would be wonderful to lock in a date soon.

Warmly

s 47F
