10 DEAD IN BONDI BEACH SHOOTING

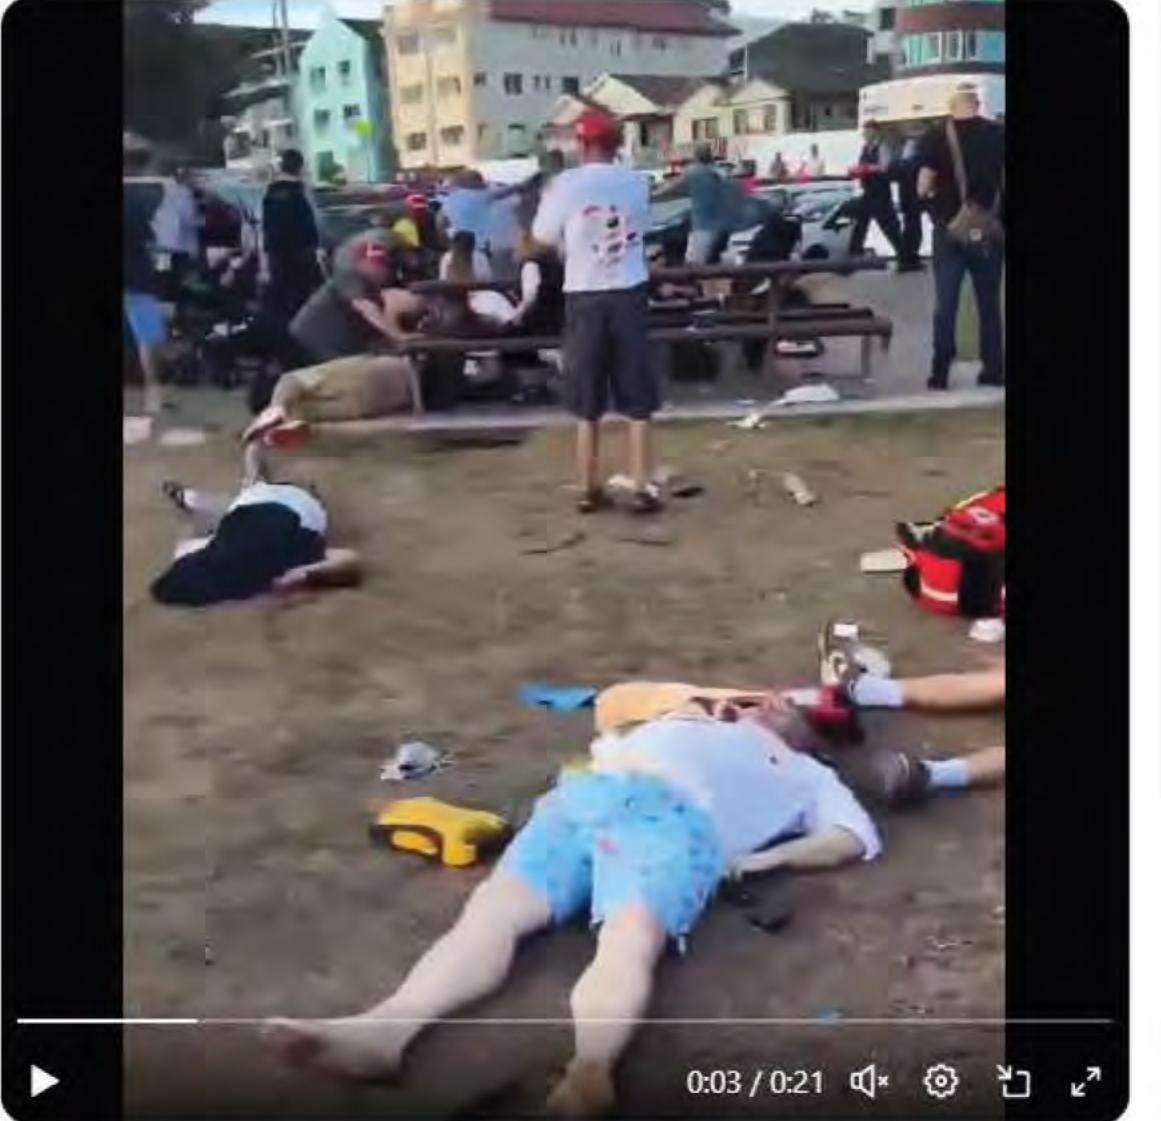

At least 10 people have been killed, including children and a police officer, after gunmen opened fire during a Hanukkah event at Bondi Beach.

One shooter was reportedly shot dead by police, while another is in custody and being treated by emergency services.

Early information suggests the attack may have deliberately targeted a Jewish gathering and had been planned for months, though authorities have not confirmed a motive.

Police are also sweeping the area for potential explosives after a report of a bomb placed under a nearby pedestrian bridge.

That protocol, for police to try and resuscitate, is going to end up being the focus for many people.
Don't let anger consume you.
Such a horrible event.

Statement on the Bondi Beach Attack

Australians are in deep mourning tonight, with hateful violence striking at the heart of an iconic Australian community, a place we all know so well and love, Bondi.

The loss of life from this attack is significant and I join with the Prime Minister in urging all Australians to follow official advice from police and relevant authorities.

This attack occurred as our Jewish community came together at the Chanukah by the Sea celebration. This was a celebration of peace and hope for the future, severed by hate.

My heart is with Australia's Jewish community tonight, particularly those in the eastern suburbs of Sydney — people I know well.

Today we stand together as Australians against hate in this moment of profound tragedy and shock.

I want to acknowledge the swift and courageous response of New South Wales Police and paramedics, whose immediate action helped secure the scene, protect lives and support those caught up in this horrific attack.

Those who ran towards the danger, everyday Australians, our police and paramedics are heroes.

I offer the Prime Minister and all Commonwealth and State agencies the Coalition's full and unconditional support as both governments respond to this situation.

If this is not a cause for the governor general to dismiss the filthy Albanese government I don't know maybe we need to kill Albanese ourselves to save Australia from He's Muslim invasion

This terrorist attack in Bondi serves no one but the Zionists and their supporters. It has Mossad operation written all over it.
