My thoughts about online safety at school

Section 1 – Online safety and me: I know my rights and responsibilities
	A No	B Not sure	C Sometimes	D Yes
1. I listen to clues in my body when something online does not feel right.
2. I know what to do if someone bullies me or my friends online.
3. I am kind and include my friends when I play online.
4. I talk about the things I do online and how they make me feel.
5. I follow the class rules when I play on devices.
6. I have ideas about how to make online games and tools safer for people to use.

Section 2 – Online safety lessons: At school we learn about online safety

	A No	B Not sure	C Sometimes	D Yes
7. My teacher talks with us about being safe and kind online.
8. In class we learn about why it is important to include people offline and online.
9. I have learned to ask questions about things I see online.
10. I like to talk to my teacher about what I do online.
11. My teacher talks with us about the signs that someone online is unsafe to talk to.

Section 3 – Online safety at my school: What my school does to keep me safe online

	A No	B Not sure	C Sometimes	D Yes
12. My school believes that online safety is important.
13. We have lessons about being a good friend, online and offline.
14. My school encourages me to tell a teacher if something happens online that makes me feel uncertain, uncomfortable, or unsafe.
15. My teachers ask me what I think our school should do to keep us safe online.
