REMOVAL NOTICE TO REMOVE CYBER-ABUSE MATERIAL FROM YOUR SERVICE

Under section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth)

To: s 47F

I am a delegate of the eSafety Commissioner for the purposes of section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) (the Act).

This removal notice is given to you under section 88 of the Act and requires you to take all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the Material from your service.

Background

On s 47E(d) / s 47F, the eSafety Commissioner received a complaint under section 36 of the Act (the Complaint) about cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult that is available on a service that you provide (the Material).

eSafety's subsequent investigation led to the assessment of s 47E(d) / s 47F and its pages (as specified in Schedule A) as cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult.

The cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult

The Material is listed in Schedule A.

The decision to give you this removal notice

Taking into account all of the circumstances, I have reached the view that:

- a) An ordinary reasonable person would conclude that it is likely that the Material is intended to cause serious harm to the targeted Australian adult because:

a. s 47E(d) / s 47F

e. s 47E(d) / s 47F

f.

- b) An ordinary reasonable person in the position of the targeted Australian adult would regard the Material as being menacing because s 47E(d) / s 47F

- c) An ordinary reasonable person in the position of the targeted Australian adult would regard the Material as being harassing because s 47E(d) / s 47F

- d) An ordinary reasonable person in the position of the targeted Australian adult would regard the Material as being offensive because s 47E(d) / s 47F

. The Material does not appear to have any literary, artistic or educational merit nor is it of a medical, legal or scientific character.

I am satisfied that:

- a) the Material is provided on s 47E(d) / s 47F, a designated internet service;
- b) you are the provider of s 47E(d) / s 47F;
- c) the Material was the subject of a complaint that was made to the provider of the service;
- d) the Material was not removed from the service within 48 hours after the complaint was made;
- e) a complaint has been made to the eSafety Commissioner under section 36 of the Act about the Material; and
- f) the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Act.

On this basis, I have decided to give you the Notice.

Required action

Please email requests@esafety.gov.au once you have taken all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the Material in compliance with the Notice. Failure to comply with the Notice may result in compliance or enforcement action being taken against you without further notice.

If you have any questions about the Notice or if you require a longer period of time to comply, contact our office by email to requests@esafety.gov.au as soon as you receive this Notice.

Failure to comply

Under section 91 of the Act, you must comply with a requirement under a removal notice given under section 88 of the Act to the extent that you are capable of doing so.

Failure to comply with the Notice may result in enforcement action, including the commencement of civil penalty proceedings for a civil penalty order of up to a maximum penalty of $165,000 (AUD) for a single contravention by an individual.

Review rights

You have a right to seek an internal or external review of the decision to give you a removal notice.

An internal review is a review conducted by the eSafety Commissioner under the Internal Review Scheme. There is no fee associated with a request for an internal review.

An external review is a review conducted by the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART). The enclosed information sheet sets out your rights regarding the different review options available to you, as well as other options if you do not agree that the Notice should have been given to you.

Please note that you are required to comply with the Notice even if you have made an application for internal or external review, unless you receive notice that the eSafety Commissioner or the ART has decided otherwise.

REMOVAL NOTICE TO REMOVE CYBER-ABUSE MATERIAL FROM YOUR SERVICE

Under section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth)

To: Doxbin

By Email: legal@doxbin.com

I am a delegate of the eSafety Commissioner for the purposes of section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) (the Act).

This removal notice is given to you under section 88 of the Act and requires you to take all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the material from your service specified in Schedule A.

You are required to comply with this requirement within 24 hours of being given this notice, or within such longer period as I allow if contacted by you with a request for an extension

Background

On s 47E(d) / s 47F , the eSafety Commissioner received a complaint on behalf of the targeted person (the Targeted Person) under section 36 of the Act (the Complaint) about cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult that is available on a service that you provide (the Material).

eSafety's subsequent investigation led to my assessment of the Material (specified below and in Schedule A) as cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult.

The Targeted Person has been the victim of cyber abuse because s 47E(d) / s 47F

The adult cyber-abuse material

The Material is available at:

1. s 47E(d) / s 47F
- 2.

The decision to give you this removal notice

Taking into account all of the circumstances, I have reached the view that the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult, as:

- a) an ordinary reasonable person would conclude that it is likely that the Material was intended to cause serious harm to the Targeted Person because:

i. s 47E(d) / s 47F

ii.

- b) an ordinary reasonable person in the position of the Targeted Person would regard the Material as being, in all circumstances, menacing, because:

i. s 47E(d) / s 47F

ii.

I am satisfied that:

- a) the Material is provided on a relevant electronic service;
- b) the Material was the subject of a complaint that was made to the provider of the service;
- c) the Material was not removed from the service within 48 hours after the complaint was made, or within a longer period that was allowed by the eSafety Commissioner;
- d) a complaint has been made to the eSafety Commissioner under section 36 of the Act about the Material; and
- e) the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Act.

On this basis, I have decided to give you the Notice.

Required action

Please email requests@esafety.gov.au once you have taken all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the Material in compliance with the Notice. Failure to comply with the Notice may result in compliance or enforcement action being taken against you without further notice.

If you have any questions about the Notice or if you require a longer period of time to comply, contact our office by email to requests@esafety.gov.au as soon as you receive this Notice.

Failure to comply

Under section 91 of the Act, you must comply with a requirement under a removal notice given under section 88 of the Act to the extent that you are capable of doing so.

Failure to comply with the Notice may result in enforcement action, including the commencement of civil penalty proceedings for a civil penalty order of up to a maximum penalty of $825,000 (AUD) for a single contravention by a body corporate.

Review rights

You have a right to seek an internal or external review of the decision to give you a removal notice.

An internal review is a review conducted by the eSafety Commissioner under the Internal Review Scheme. There is no fee associated with a request for an internal review.

An external review is a review conducted by the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART). The enclosed information sheet sets out your rights regarding the different review options available to you, as well as other options if you do not agree that the Notice should have been given to you.

Background

On s 47E(d) / s 47F, the eSafety Commissioner received a complaint under section 36 of the Act (the Complaint) about cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult that is available on a service that you host (the Material).

eSafety's subsequent enquiries and investigation led to the assessment of the Material as cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult. The Material is further specified in the Notice.

The decision to give you this removal notice

I have formed the view that:

- a) the Material is provided on a designated internet service within the meaning of section 14 of the Act;
- b) the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Act;
- c) the Material was the subject of a complaint that was made to the provider of the service;
- d) the Material was not removed from the service within 48 hours after the complaint was made, or within a longer period that was allowed by the eSafety Commissioner;

- e) a complaint has been made to the eSafety Commissioner under section 36(2) of the Act about the Material; and
- f) you are the hosting service provider of the designated internet service that the Material is provided on.

On this basis, I have decided to give you the Notice.

Required action

You are required to take all reasonable steps to cease hosting the Material within 24 hours of being given this Notice, or within such longer period as I allow if I grant you an extension.

Please email requests@esafety.gov.au once you have taken all reasonable steps to ensure compliance with this Notice.

If you have any questions about the Notice or if you wish to request an extension of time to comply, contact our office by email to requests@esafety.gov.au. If you intend to request an extension, you should do so as soon as possible.

Failure to comply

Under section 91 of the Act, you must comply with a requirement under a removal notice given under section 90 of the Act to the extent you are capable of doing so.

Failure to comply with the Notice may result in enforcement action being taken against you, including the commencement of civil penalty proceedings for a civil penalty order of up to a maximum penalty of $825,000 (AUD) for a single contravention by a body corporate.

Giving false or misleading information or documents to eSafety is also an offence (see sections 137.1 and 137.2 of the Schedule to the Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth)).

Review rights

You have a right to seek an internal or external review of the decision to give you a removal notice.

An internal review is a review conducted by the eSafety Commissioner under the Internal Review Scheme. There is no fee associated with a request for an internal review.

An external review is a review conducted by the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART). The enclosed information sheet sets out your rights regarding the different review options available to you, as well as other options if you do not agree that the Notice should have been given to you.

Please note that you are required to comply with the Notice even if you have made an application for internal or external review, unless you receive notice that the eSafety Commissioner or the ART has decided otherwise.

Information sheet: Right of Review

Internal review by the eSafety Commissioner or nominee

You have a right to seek an internal review of this decision under eSafety's Internal Review Scheme. An internal review is an impartial review of the merits of a decision. The purpose of an internal review is to consider whether the original decision made was the correct and preferable one.

You must make an application for an internal review within 30 days of receiving the notice of this decision. If you intend to seek an internal review but are unable to make your application within 30 days, please email internalreview@esafety.gov.au.

There are no fees associated with an application for internal review.

To request an internal review, you will need to download and complete the Request for internal review form available on eSafety's website: www.esafety.gov.au/about-us/corporate-documents/internal-review.

Please fill the form out and email it or post a hard copy to eSafety.

Email: internalreview@esafety.gov.au

Post: Attention: Internal Review
eSafety Commissioner
PO Box Q500
Queen Victoria Building
NSW 1230

For additional information on eSafety's Internal Review Scheme, including the eSafety Internal Review Procedure and the Online Safety (Internal Review Scheme) Instrument 2022, please visit eSafety's website: www.esafety.gov.au/about-us/corporate-documents/internal-review.

External review by the Administrative Review Tribunal

You have a right to seek review of this decision by the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART). You can also request that the ART review a decision that has been made under the Internal Review Scheme.

It is recommended that you seek an internal review prior to seeking a review by the ART, however, there is no requirement to do so. You can choose to apply directly to the ART.

The ART is an independent body that can, among other things affirm, vary, or set aside the decision. If the ART sets aside the decision, it may make a substitute decision or remit the matter to the decision-maker to reconsider.

You must make any application for review to the ART in writing. The ART has a form available on its website which you can use.

Applications for review should be made within 28 days of being told about the decision.

You must enclose the application fee with your application. If you want to apply for the application fee to be reduced, you can obtain the application form for this from the ART.

The ART website (www.art.gov.au) has more information. If you have any questions about the ART's procedures and requirements, please contact the ART. Information about how to contact the ART is available at <https://www.art.gov.au/contact-us>.

Requesting a statement of reasons for decision

You may request a statement of reasons for this decision under section 268 of the Administrative Review Tribunal Act 2024 (Cth). Your request needs to be made in writing within 28 days of being told of this decision. To request a statement of reasons, please email internalreview@esafety.gov.au.

Judicial Review

You may also be able to seek judicial review of this decision.

Judicial review does not consider the merits of the decision, and instead considers the legality of the decision, such as whether the decision-maker had power under the relevant statute to make the decision, followed the proper process and exercised the power in accordance with the law.

Should you wish to apply for judicial review of this decision, you may wish to obtain legal advice, as there may be costs involved.

Access to documents

You have a right to seek access to documents held by the eSafety Commissioner under the Freedom of Information Act 1982 (Cth) (FOI Act).

You must apply to the eSafety Commissioner in writing through one of the following options:

Online: using the Contact Us form on the eSafety Commissioner's website

Email: foi@esafety.gov.au

Post: Attention: The FOI Coordinator
eSafety Commissioner
PO Box Q500
Queen Victoria Building
NSW 1230

When you make your application, you should:

- state that the request is an application for the purpose of the FOI Act;
- provide information about each document to which you are seeking access to enable us to process your request; and
- provide a postal, email or fax address for us to reply to and which we can use to communicate with you about your application.

The eSafety Commissioner's website has more information on how to make an FOI application:

<https://www.esafety.gov.au/about-us/corporate-documents/freedom-of-information>

Complaints

If you are dissatisfied with the way that the eSafety Commissioner has handled this matter, we ask that you contact us using the Contact Us form on the eSafety Commissioner's website so that we can try to help resolve any issues:

<https://www.esafety.gov.au/about-us/contact-us>

If you are still dissatisfied, you may make a complaint to the Commonwealth Ombudsman. The Ombudsman usually prefers that your concerns are raised with the eSafety Commissioner first.

There is a Commonwealth Ombudsman office in each capital city. Further information may be obtained at www.ombudsman.gov.au.

REMOVAL NOTICE TO REMOVE CYBER-ABUSE MATERIAL FROM YOUR SERVICE

Under section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth)

To: X Corp.

By online portal: <https://legalrequests.x.com/>

I am a delegate of the eSafety Commissioner for the purposes of section 88 of the Online Safety Act 2021 (Cth) (the Act).

This removal notice is given to you under section 88 of the Act and requires you to take all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the material from your service specified at the URL link.

Background

On s 47E(d) / s 47F, the eSafety Commissioner received a complaint under section 36 of the Act (the Complaint) about cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult that is available on a service that you provide (the Material).

The adult cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult

The Material is available at:

s 47E(d) / s 47F

The decision to give you this removal notice

Taking into account all of the circumstances, I have reached the view that the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult, as:

- 1) the Material is provided on a social media service within the meaning of section 13 of the Act;
- 2) an ordinary reasonable person would conclude that it is likely that the Material is intended to cause serious harm to the Complainant (an Australian adult) because:
 - a) s 47E(d) / s 47F
 - b)
- 3) an ordinary reasonable person in the position of the Complainant would regard the Material as being menacing because s 47E(d) / s 47F

s 47E(d) / s 47F

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

[Redacted]

I am satisfied that:

- a) the Material is provided on a social media service;
- b) the Material was the subject of a Complaint that was made to the provider of the service;
- c) the Material was not removed from the service within 48 hours after the complaint was made, or within a longer period that was allowed by the eSafety Commissioner;
- d) a Complaint has been made to the eSafety Commissioner under section 36 of the Act about the Material; and
- e) the Material is cyber-abuse material targeted at an Australian adult within the meaning of the Act.

On this basis, I have decided to give you the Notice.

Required action

You are required to take all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the Material from your service within 24 hours of being given this Notice, or within such longer period as I allow if I grant you an extension.

Please email requests@esafety.gov.au once you have taken all reasonable steps to ensure the removal of the Material in compliance with this Notice.

If you have any questions about the Notice or if you require an extension of time to comply, contact our office by email to requests@esafety.gov.au as soon as you receive this Notice.

Failure to comply

Under section 91 of the Act, you must comply with a requirement under a removal notice given under section 88 of the Act to the extent that you are capable of doing so.

Failure to comply with the Notice may result in enforcement action being taken against you, including the commencement of civil penalty proceedings for a civil penalty order of up to a maximum penalty of $825,000 (AUD) for a single contravention by a body corporate.

Giving false or misleading information or documents to eSafety is also an offence (see sections 137.1 and 137.2 of the Schedule to the Criminal Code Act 1995 (Cth)).

Review rights

You have a right to seek an internal or external review of the decision to give you a removal notice.

An internal review is a review conducted by the eSafety Commissioner under the Internal Review Scheme. There is no fee associated with a request for an internal review.

An external review is a review conducted by the Administrative Review Tribunal (ART). The enclosed information sheet sets out your rights regarding the different review options available to you, as well as other options if you do not agree that the Notice should have been given to you.

Please note that you are required to comply with the Notice even if you have made an application for internal or external review, unless you receive notice that the eSafety Commissioner or the ART has decided otherwise.
